ELIGIBILITY

The Fence Show is open to all artists over the age of 18. Only original artwork will be accepted, photo reproductions are not acceptable. Only crafts of the highest caliber will be accepted into the show. Crafts must be handmade, NOT MASS PRODUCED, and please no garage sale items.

NEW REQUIREMENT

Include with your application a printed picture (no larger than 8.5 x 11) of the body of work that you will be presenting at the show. Please include your website information on this application as well, The Staten Island Museum reserves the right to reject work deemed unsuitable.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Fees listed on the application are for a 12' space, maximum of two artist per space. Please indicate the number of 12' spaces you will need and whether you need a fence or freestanding space (no tables or chairs are provided). If the Fence Show is canceled in its entirety due to weather, 50% of the fee for the space is refunded, this does not include membership fees.

EXHIBITOR GUIDELINES

The morning of the show set up is between 9:00am - 10:30am. All hanging artwork must be framed when applicable; any unframed pieces may be displayed in portfolio stands. Protruding displays that obstruct walkways or other spaces, signage that exceeds 30" in any dimension and the playing of music is not permitted. Artists are encouraged to offer works for sale. The Museum charges no commission, artists are responsible for the collection of any applicable sales tax. Artists are responsible for the protection and security of their own works and the removal of all trash after the show is done.

PROMOTION

The Fence Show will be part of a larger event called Connect The Dots Art Festival. The Staten Island Museum will promote the Fence Show through media releases, program calendar, radio announcements, invitation and online. To get to Snug Harbor take the S40 Bus from the Staten Island Ferry.
